Location: La Cala de Mijas

Description: The cheapest of three inheritance apartments now for sale in this complex. they were originally purchased in 2010 and never used. These properties are not to be confused with properties far away from the sea. These apartments are walking distance to the center of La Cala and the beach (only about five minutes walk). The current average sales value of newer properties in this area is now over 220,000€. So these three apartments represent very good value. All of the apartments have some sea views and sunny terraces, two bedrooms, two bathrooms & an underground private garage space. The sizes of the properties are to be confirmed.
